

Over 100 parents and supporters responded to a survey we developed to help guide this process and you can see some of the results below.

Who should the program be for?

How should it be facilitated?

What format works best?

How necessary is this?

A few comments from the surveys:

"If families can get support early, perhaps more serious heartache can be avoided."

"Speaking as a lay person - this is very much needed! I am too often struggling to know how to support the younger people in my community, and how to do it without causing damage to my own family."

"Being a parent who had a teen that would have benefited greatly from Rock Solid, I can see the value in this program."

"I believe that there is a great need for people who are struggling with difficult teens to have support. Somewhere to go where they can share all that they are going through."

"This plan is crucial for the success of the teens and the people around them, who also need support. Thanks for considering this important ministry."

"This would have been helpful for us in the months we were waiting for an opening at RSR. Also in the years after as we tried to give support to a struggling teen/adult."

"As a counsellor, I'm always looking for resources for my clients to access. This idea has potential."
